

TEMPE EMPTY BOWLS SPONSORSHIP DECK

Increase brand exposure through sponsorship!

ABOUT THE EVENT

Tempe Empty Bowls is a fundraiser in its 23rd iteration that combines art and community action to combat food insecurity in our area. Throughout the year, we work with Tempe Union High School students and teachers, local artists, and the Edna Vihel Arts Center to create hundreds of handcrafted, decorative clay bowls that are put on display for purchase at our event, held Saturday, February 22nd, from 10AM to 2PM at the Community Center Courtyard, near the Tempe Library, at 3500 S. Rural Rd. This popular annual event is attended by community members of all ages and backgrounds! All proceeds benefit hunger relief programs operated by local non-profits, Tempe Community Action Agency and United Food Bank, we are seeking sponsors for this year's event, with every sponsorship dollar going directly to support hunger relief in our community. See below for sponsorship tiers and benefits!
